Dear Alumni,

President Joseph Subbiondo and I wish you all a warm welcome to San Francisco and CIIS, Meg! As we approach winter solstice, I wish you all time for rest, as well as teaching the core MA dance therapy curriculum and recruiting and advising graduate students, Meg brings an abundance of professional and personal approaches to health and healing. She was hired last August as a part-time faculty member in the dance therapy program, and will offer sessions in her home office in New York City.

The Arts at CIIS has working relationships with Minna Street Center, a shelter for women and children in the East Village, and the Women’s Prison, and continues to see clients in her home office in New York City. Meg will offer sessions there. Mariefrance will also continue to see clients in her home office in Hawaii, and will offer sessions there. Mariefrance will offer sessions there.

In an approach similar to other schools, we call all the men, women, and trans students. May you soon bring a sense of joy into your daily life and be transformed.
