

Graduate Student Work-in-Progress Sessions

Lavender Languages and Linguistics Conference

27th Annual | May 21-23, 2021 | ONLINE

CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE OF INTEGRAL STUDIES
CIIS.EDU

Time slots	Student name	Title of paper
Saturday 22 May 2021 - Graduate Student Work-in-Progress Session 1
8:30-9:00	Clarissa E. Francis	How to Make a Black Woman Come to the Center: A Social History of Pleasure Activism for Black Women's Sexual Liberation
9:00-9:15	Robin Turner	A Historical Sociolinguistic Perspective on Bilingual LGBTQ+ Communities
9:15-9:30	Daniel Cisneros	A Corpus Linguistic Study of the Coming Out Process through analysis of the Identity & Development Models.
9:30-9:45	Carole Clements	Sex Positivity and the Maintenance of White Supremacy in Sex Therapy
9:45-10:00	General Q&A
Sunday 23 May 2021 - Graduate Student Work-in-Progress Session 2
8:30-9:00	Ericka Burns	Now you're speaking my language: Linguistic trends of Black queer youth
9:00-9:15	Joe Pearce	Voice quality in contemporary Scotland: Perception, gender, & identity
9:15-9:30	E. Cameron Lucas	The impact of social acceptance of sexuality disclosure on the development of a gay lisp
9:30-9:45	Caleb H. Kelley	Sounding gay and sounding straight in Spain: A cross-dialectal approach
9:45-10:00	General Q&A

All times are Pacific Standard (GMT – 8)

Each 15-minute slot is comprised of: 8 minutes for your talk, followed by 7 minutes for Q&A. Times will need to be adhered to very closely, so please practice your paper to ensure it can be delivered within 8 minutes maximum.

Questions?

Program: Eric Louis Russell at erussell@ucdavis.edu

General Conference: Michelle Marzullo at mmarzullo@ciis.edu